- Notes: 1 The number of employees in the sample for whom normal basic hours were reported and for whom hourly earnings could, therefore, be calculated.
2 Corresponding quantiles are given in table 126.
3 Detailed results for all the ranges used in table 35 in Part B are available on request.
4 Results are only given where estimates of average gross hourly earnings are based on a sample of at least 50 persons and have a standard error of not more than 4.0 per cent of the average.

- Notes: 1 The numbers in the sample to which the estimates in this table relate are given in table 124 for gross weekly earnings and table 125 for gross hourly earnings. Those tables also give the corresponding averages (means).
- 2 Results are only given for age-groups where the estimates of average gross weekly and hourly earnings are based on sample sizes of at least 50 and have standard errors of not more than 4.0 per cent of the average.
